The Fight

By James Michael Orr

Never the greatest,
Not even that bright,
But I'm not here for prizes,
I'm here for the fight.

The opponent comes swinging,
Knows just where to land,
Every blow makes me stagger,
But I've taken my stand.

For I'm fighting my shadow,
And I don't fight for show,
My courage its weakness,
And I trade blow for blow.

My hands at the ready,
My arms solid muscle,
My feet always moving,
And I'm here for the hustle.

I don't plan on losing,
Or giving an inch,
Got an ace in my corner,
When I'm caught in a pinch,

For the power behind me,
Is always in sight,
Never down for the counting,
'Cause I'm here for the fight.
